

A diverse media is absolutely critical to ensuring a real democracy. The FCC's proposed measures for lifting restrictions on media consolidation will greatly reduce the number of companies, and therefore the number of voices needed to ensure democratic participation, available on our PUBLIC airwaves. Please do NOT approve any measures for further media consolidation.

Julie Andersen